Murder, Wrongful Conviction and the Law

An International Comparative Analysis

Edited By Jon Robins

This work brings together international experts, from backgrounds including law, psychology, forensics and journalism, to present a comparative analysis of wrongful conviction and criminal procedure. It discusses common themes including the extent of the problem; the types of cases that feature in miscarriages of justice; the legal mechanism for the correction of a wrongful conviction; compensation for the wrongly convicted; public awareness and in light of high-profile cases; and the extent to which wrongful conviction has driven criminal justice reform. The book will be essential reading for students, researchers and policy-makers interested in Comparative Law, Criminology and Psychology.
